Pioneered prompt engineering as a content discipline at Meta, authoring the first playbook. AI and product systems work has driven $300M+ in revenue. 20+ years shaping product language at scale, from Bank of America's Erica AI assistant (2021) to Meta's AI-generated ad content (2025-2026). Deep specialty in system prompt engineering, AI evaluation frameworks, and scaling content through AI while maintaining a high bar for voice and quality. The experience always comes first, and can always be a little better.

Professional experience

- Staff Content Designer (IC6) and AI Lead, Meta, Remote Sept. 2022–July 2026
- Built Meta's first AI playbook for content teams, with prompt-writing and evaluation criteria adopted across product teams; formally established system prompt-writing as a content discipline; AI-powered CTAs delivered a 75% jump in high-quality output
